

Indian Nations of Wisconsin
The book is a collection of stories from twelve different Native American tribes in Wisconsin. It is written by Dr. Patty Loew, a member of the Bad River Ojibwe tribe. The book is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the history and culture of Native Americans in Wisconsin.

Live Webinar—Native Nations of Wisconsin

Wednesday, October 21, 2026 | 12:00-1:30 PM

Dr. Patty Loew, Mashkiiziibii (Bad River Ojibwe), author of Indian Nations of Wisconsin: Histories of Endurance and Renewal, provides an overview of the twelve nations and urban Indian communities in our state. Dr. Loew will share brief histories and highlights of some successes and challenges facing our Indigenous neighbors, with an emphasis on environmental activities. A better understanding of these sovereign communities helps us better support Native children and families.

Free | Registration is limited to 500 participants
